7. Variation and Replacement

The conditions of this undertaking may be varied with the written consent of the prosecutor and yourself. In addition, you or the prosecutor may apply to a justice of the peace to replace this undertaking with a release order under section 515 of the Criminal Code.

8. Conditions in effect

The mandatory condition and the conditions indicated by a check mark on this undertaking remain in effect until they are cancelled or changed or until you have been discharged, sentenced or otherwise detained by the court (sections 763 and 764 of the Criminal Code).

9. Consequence for non-compliance

You are warned that, unless you have a lawful excuse, you commit an offence under section 145 of the Criminal Code if you fail to follow any of the conditions set out in this undertaking, including

(a) to fail to attend court as required;

(b) to fail to appear as required for the purposes of the Identification of Criminals Act;

(c) to fail to remain in the territorial jurisdiction specified in section 6 of this undertaking (if applicable).

If you commit an offence under section 145 of the Criminal Code, a warrant for your arrest may be issued (section 512 or 512.2 of the Criminal Code) and you may be liable to a fine or to imprisonment, or to both.

It is not a lawful excuse to an offence under subsection 145(4) of the Criminal Code that this undertaking does not accurately describe the offence that you are alleged to have committed (subsection 145(6) of the Criminal Code).

If you do not comply with this undertaking or are charged with committing an indictable offence after you have been released, this undertaking may be cancelled and, as a result, you may be detained in custody (subsection 524(4) of the Criminal Code).

If you do not comply with this undertaking, the funds or valuable security promised or deposited by you or your surety could be forfeited (subsection 771(2) of the Criminal Code).

A Young Person's Right to Legal Counsel

You have the right to have a lawyer advise and represent you. You can hire a lawyer yourself, you can ask legal aid for a lawyer, or you can ask a judge in the youth justice court to appoint a lawyer for you.

Notice to a Person Charged with an Offence

You have the right to be represented by a lawyer when you go to court for your charge(s). You should contact a lawyer as soon as possible so that they can attend court with you on your first court date.

A listing of all lawyers is located on the Law Society of Newfoundland & Labrador website located at:
https://www.lsnl.ca/ under "Lawyer Directory"

If you feel that you cannot afford a lawyer, you can apply to the Newfoundland and Labrador Legal Aid Commission to see if they will appoint a lawyer for you. More information can be located on their website at: https://www.legalaid.nl.ca
