Constable Brown,

I left for you my phone number: it's 613-848-6832. It was also included in my e-mail (see below).

I informed you that www.pfi.rocks was up & running again & created a summary page for you: https://pfi.rocks/to-nrps. It works fine: are you a pathological liar too?

I informed you that this crime syndicate involves PROVINCIAL judges, Crown prosecutors as well as Ottawa police and that the crimes included trafficking, torture & terrorism. Ergo, beyond the jurisdiction of the crime ring that runs OPSB.

There is enough evidence on the first tab of my site to start this file & I am in your jurisdiction. I have followed proper process as directed by other law enforcement. To whom do you report?

PS. I realize that arresting judges might be intimidating; however, it's someones job. Yes, RCMP's Matt PEGGS (https://www.rcmp-grc.gc.ca/en/news/2023/rcmp-o-division-ontario-welcomes-new-commanding-officer-official-change-command-ceremony)

News release

Today, RCMP O Division (Ontario) members and employees officially welcomed Assistant Commissioner Matt Peggs as their new Commanding Officer, in a ceremony held in Toronto.

rcmp-grc.gc.ca — Private has a team so I don't have his direct contact information. However, I spoke to more than dispatch: you mustn't have listened the right recording.

PPS. Maybe NRPS's Board need to be suspended (like Surrey BC's) as well as Ottawa's? Based on what I've heard/experienced so far, it certainly seems that way to me.

Have a nice day.

Based off the review of your document and what I was able to look at from the website last week. It does not appear there is anything I can investigate for a few reasons. The matters regarding your family and money owed, appears to have been concluded by CAS and family courts. I would suggest speaking with the courts about appealing the decision or what they can do to assist. The fraud and other claims again appeared to have occurred in Ottawa and investigated by them. With that I would say if you were not satisfied with their decision (in reference to you speaking with Fraud detective in Ottawa), the proper channel for complaint would be OIPRD. If there is new information or investigation you would like to start regarding this, it would have to be done with Ottawa as that is where the alleged offences occurred. I do understand your complaints with Ottawa/ OIPRD but that is the jurisdiction where it has occurred. It does appear your website link was provided to Ottawa Police Service.

I also listened to a voice recording on your site, where you spoke with a RCMP dispatch and not with Detective Matthew PAGG. If you have his information and he said he would investigate, then I would follow up with that. But from what I gathered from that voice recording was you did not have his email or phone number.

Again apologies I can't be of more assistance with this but quite frankly it seems the follow up and information should be provided through Ottawa channels. I tried to call 621-791-0928 but I think that is an old number? Either way, I would suggest

Good morning Detective Brown,

As per my voicemail, my evidence-laden website just crashed and I'm not sure when it will be repaired. I am now drafting a summary for you here:

To access this site use:

A word version of the page I am building is attached (as is a statement of claim which simply serves as a decent chronology of events). Can I provide to you my statement in person? It would save you a lot of time in trying to digest the amount of evidence that I have. I'm at the YWCA shelter in Niagara Falls at 6135 Culp Street.
