A Commissioner for taking affidavits

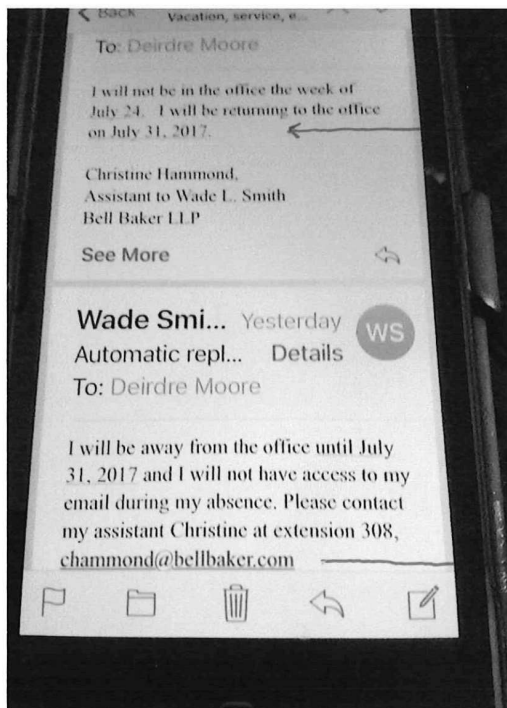

Hi Damien.

I don't suppose you might be in the office on Monday?

Any chance you can confirm when I can expect to receive Wade's affidavit re: Kiska-Moore?

Thanks so much.

Deirdre

When someone has a "history of mental illness", confirmations of receipt of documents is important.

It is just too easy for the Applicant/his legal team to claim "She's just so sick, she must have forgotten to actually serve us the documents".

Funny how everyone is all of a sudden on vacation. Maybe I should e-mail Damien?? Can anyone confirm anything?

Please note the word "again" in attachment. It will be interesting to see which one you choose.

Your behaviour coupled with your client's emails are inspirational.

Have a nice day.

Hi Christine.

Would you please confirm that the term "Motion materials" used below includes my affidavit plus its 19 exhibits from a to s?

Thank you.

Deirdre

Good Morning Ms. Moore:

We acknowledge receipt of your Motion materials served on July 18, 2017. According to the Endorsement of Master Fortier at the Procedural Motion held July 13, 2017, a timeline was set that we are to serve Mr. Kiska's responding material within 10 days of being served. This would then be by July 28, 2017. As you are aware, Mr. Smith is on vacation, away from Ottawa, and will not be returning until the week of July 31, 2017. We would, therefore, as for your Consent to serving you with the Responding Affidavit on or before August 4, 2017.

We attach a Consent for your signature and return.

Yours truly,

BELL BAKER LLP

Christine Hammond,
