Hi Bryce,

Well, here it is.

If nothing else, I have helped others to make claims under the Family Law Act in the future

<https://www.canlii.org/en/on/onsc/doc/2017/2017onsc6872/2017onsc6872.html?autocompleteStr=Kiska&autocompletePos=2>

Dear Mr. Morris,

Aside from being a very effective writer and presenter of complex information, I am a very talented Chartered Financial Analyst. However, due to the extensive defamation exhibited by my ex-husband amongst my professional circle, it has proven extremely difficult for me to find meaningful employment. Would there be any opportunities (short-term/part-time/contract or otherwise) for a talented financial analyst at your firm?

Thank you for your consideration,

Deirdre Moore, CFA, BBA

Hi Andrea.

As per my voicemail, I just thought I would follow-up on the opportunity with PWGSC to see if it's still a potential contract or not. If not, if you had similar opportunities available (even short-term) I would be very interested in hearing about them.

Thanks so much.
Deirdre.

Hi Andrea. 10:30 this Friday is perfect!

If there is any question regarding my level of Excel skills, you need only call Eric Leveille who I worked with most recently at The Ottawa Hospital. The reason that he is the best reference for this role is because I taught him throughout my contract about advanced formulas and macros ... as well as how to add VBA code to better automate his reports. Other clients know the final product, but he knows how I attack reporting challenges.

Looking forward to the interview confirmation.

Deirdre.

(Sorry for the late reply: a full day with 30+ degree heat and hundreds of kids all over Upper Canada Village! Such is the beauty of flexible working hours 😊)

Hi Andrea.

I easily meet requirements but can't be there until after 10:00 this Friday. Could be there at 8:45 on Monday. Would that work?

Hi Miranda. Happy New Year!

I just wanted to touch base to see if you were still looking for analysts/writers. Since we met, I did a short contract for NRC and I am now working on a band funding model for INAC with another consultant. Actually, the contract is in Gatineau just down the street from you. Would you be interested in going for a coffee to touch base some time? Obviously, I would love to find out if there is any fit between me and your team at some point. Regardless, it would be great to meet again. I have learned a bit since we met and am happy to share/brainstorm.

Hope to hear from you whenever you get a chance.
Deirdre.

Ps. I have new contract information too. E-mail, as per above, and a new mobile # 613-261-3520 for texts or calls.

Good Morning.

As promised, please find attached a sample* of the jobs/contracts that I have applied for since March. (Keep in mind that I have had two moves since the date of Separation and am self-representing due to a lack of finances.

My supports payments since separation has been $15,000. On a without prejudice basis, please ask your client for a lump-sum payment that brings the total up to the high-amount on the schedule (as suggested by the judge yesterday) for eight months—which includes July—where my imputed income reflects reality: $0. If my financial situation changes, I will repay the over-payment.

I have outlined my financial situation many times before and would be happy to provide you with all of that information again, if required.

I would prefer to spend my time looking for work rather than the very time-consuming process of bringing another motion. However, if I do not have a cheque by Sunday, I will be forced to do so.

Thank you.
Deirdre

*This list does not include the jobs that I applied for directly online through various sites and never received a response to.

Ps. I am not sure which type of abuse a lack of spousal/child support qualifies for, but I will do my best to find out.
