re: Your Choice to Remain Wilfully Blind

Yesterday, I provided to you a copy of "Let's support our victims..." which you read. I also explained the financial motivations for my husband's decade-long denial of a divorce. Then, I described how Canada's federal Divorce Act had been circumvented via his accomplices who exploited provincial legislation and explained to you how this violation of the Doctrine of Paramountcy was in itself unlawful.

My husband remaining in our $2,000,000 home paying zero in legislated spousal support is a published fact, Dr. Uwaiso — as are his years of severe domestic violence. My being forced to survive via shelters and social assistance not only constitutes perpetual abuse, it's criminal.

Your response to my testimony and evidence yesterday?

"I'm going to get you some pamphlets on anti-psychotics."

Dr. Uwaiso, your responses to my oral and written submissions reflect:

- a) your inability to comprehend domestic violence,
- b) your inability to acknowledge my mental fortitude and resilience,
- c) your inability to provide an accurate diagnosis or a responsible "treatment plan" and
- d) your inability to fulfill your fiduciary duty as a physician.

Your behaviour not only places this hospital at risk of civil action; but, criminal charges pursuant to section 22.1 of the Criminal Code of Canada.

Personally, you should be aware of sections 21(1), 23(1) and 300, in my opinion, as choosing to remain wilfully blind and lying about me could have consequences beyond merely any malpractice allegation.

Kindly prescribe a CNS-depressant prn so I may plan a safe discharge.
