Dear Mr. White,

Delay in further #UPIG materials

Much has occurred since my 10-package submission of October 2024. Fortunately, I managed to pre-publish all of the 20240913-20241101 evidence sent to you; and, ongoing displacement has enabled me to add more industries to what is now the #UPIG series¹. The twb.ROCKS Investigative Journalism contest that I sent to you in February, however, has been further delayed by shenanigans at the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA")²: despite successful pre-launch interest in Ottawa and the Canadian Niagara Region, the March 21 launch³ proved impossible.

Currently in Buffalo, New York, most of my rights have been illegally stripped by a group of individuals positioned at Erie County Medical Center Corporation ("ECMCC") who are alleging that I require "treatment" for Bipolar Disorder due to "grandiose thinking".⁴ Their diagnostic process was laughable and their "treatment" is none other than zero-efficacy-proven, Tardive Dyskinesia-guaranteeing, dis-ease causing Haloperidol—a drug approved for the treatment of so-called Schizophrenia. A nurse practitioner named Brenna Fox made her bold, baseless allegations that my journalism was merely "grandiose thinking" and that "court will be next Wednesday". (As we know all too well, sociopaths protect one another and Ms. Fox is clearly protecting the interests of my impossible-to-divorce husband, John Kiska.)

Apparently, I'll be able to see ECMCC's court submissions and my chart tomorrow: I'll endeavour to make a copy and send that to you too. Trusting that all is well in your world,

Verily,
Heildie Moorz

PS. Buffalo gang & mafia have made themselves known; however, the twb.ROCKS site is down for non-payment. I hope to have it back up by Tuesday so they can catch up.

Sample of CRA amounts owing (4pgs)

³ See twb.ROCKS contest announcement at www.twb.ROCKS/UPIG/contest/announcement and hard copy enclosed, if ECMCC returns my documents/evidence

⁴ En route to check on the status of my CRA deposit, I attempted to get a prn for a CNS depressant at Kaleida hospital: that crew forced my transfer to ECMCC.
