

Dear Community Member,

Re: twb.ROCKS Investigative Journalism Contest!

I am an independent journalist and Canadian whistleblower with enough material to publish a book series: to include additional perspectives, I have decided to run a contest. Would you be interested in becoming involved? Still under wraps, the plan is to:

1. approach high schools to determine interest in participation,
2. secure interest from businesses and organizations to contribute to the event,
3. recruit media outlets/personalities to raise awareness of event timeline and
4. manage the award ceremony with the help of volunteers.

Proposed contest rules:

1. Submissions must be based upon one of the industries already being exposed in my series to be listed at www.twb.rocks/upig (as of September 28, 2025).
2. Articles must be submitted between October 1-13, 2025.
3. All submissions will be published by twb.ROCKS by midnight on October 15, 2025.
4. Voting will be completed by Sunday, November 2, 2025 (by those who submitted an article¹),
5. Award ceremony will be held on Sunday, November 30, 2025²: venue is to be determined.

Proposed contest parameters:

1. Number of categories: 2 (Individual, Team)
2. English only, 800 words or less, anonymous submissions permitted
3. Hand-written (by author or whomever author must hire to generate a legible document)
4. The scoring matrix will reward quality of argument, exemplary use of vocabulary and legibility without acknowledgement of age, race, religion, sex, political affiliation, income level, formal education acquired or surname.

Would you be interested in participating?

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="radio"/> provide and/or manage volunteers? | <input type="radio"/> translate submissions into multiple languages? |
| <input type="radio"/> sell buttons to raise money for prizes? | <input type="radio"/> contribute directly? |
| <input type="radio"/> approach businesses for prize donations? | <input type="radio"/> another way? |

Please indicate your interest as soon as possible as I am hoping to announce the contest on my website and Twitter account (see <https://x.com/CaeJak>) on Monday, September 29, 2025³.

Verily,

Deirdre Moore, CFA, BBA
ascjak@outlook.com || (518) 360-7003

Note:

Additional contest categories currently under consideration include artwork for each book cover in the series.

Samples of various article styles are stored at <https://twb.rocks/living/opr> with a much longer, more organized list of topics being pre-published at <https://twb.rocks/on-tour> as time and opportunity permits.

The online version of this letter is available at <https://twb.rocks/upig/contest/announcement> where a link to the PDF version of this letter is also provided.

FOOTNOTES

[1] In the event of a tie, the winner will be selected randomly.

[2] November 30, 2025 will be my court-napped daughter Cate's 18th birthday. She and her brother, Sean, have been totally deceived by their human-trafficking-affiliated father since 2013. They have no idea that I've been trying to rescue them from Ottawa's covert trafficking hub since their illegal apprehension during February 2019.

[3] September 29, 2025 be the 65th birthday of my husband, John Kiska (see page under construction at <https://twb.rocks/domestic-terrorism/perpetrators/individuals/john-kiska>)—a sociopath and white-collar criminal who has been protected by Ottawa Police Services Board, Ottawa Mayors Jim Watson and Mark Sutcliffe and, seemingly, the city's entire legal-judicial system (as evidenced in Affidavits & Evidence at <https://twb.rocks/political-persecution/affidavits> for anyone with enough time and interest to plow through the tens of 1,000's of pages of lawlessness). Interestingly, my husband is also being protected by second-in-command Matt Peggs of Canada's Royal Canadian Mounted Police as partially evidenced at <https://twb.rocks/domestic-terrorism/perpetrators/individuals/matt-peggs>.

