

Dear Dr. White,

Re: More TMR/TMU/TMB product suggestions + Warning about 2026 FIFA World Cup & more*

I trust you received my hand-written, 20260425 letter that was included with several non-liquified soap samples and a couple of postcards. Enclosed is the typed version that some of the 52 U.S. Governors also received (see evidence being published at <https://twb.rocks/living/opinion/twitter>).

Sending to you a prototype of “Meaningful Quest” (“MQ”, style 1^[1]) is one reason for this correspondence as Third Man Upholstery (“TMU”) already exists and there could be partnership opportunities. The Bible that I have enclosed this time was not my first choice for MQ. Originally, I was planning to include on that had a slick, faux-leather cover; but, it was a New International Version (“NIV”) which has chosen to delete important verse Matthew 17:21 from its pages. Although the King James Version (“KJV”) is not perfect either—it chose “harmless” over “innocent” for Matthew 10:16—an intentional mistranslation in my opinion^[2] (see reasons at <https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/satans-little-season/beast-system/malevolent-government/your-choice>): His judgment will likely not measure “harm”, but guilt. My preference is the study of multiple Bible versions as they all seem to de-emphasize a key message via sub-optimal language/vocabulary and/or punctuation/grammar choices. MQ, however, is intended to be a mobile Bible-study game. A purse-sized KJV has been my “go-to” while travelling; so, I have included on for you (even though it does not match).

The prototype for “The Chronology Canvas” remains on hold until my Septuagint^[3] arrives; however, the concept and some support materials have been pre-published at <https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/chronology-canvas>. Again, TMU may be in a position to produce this Bible-study aid easily. It could also be an option for inclusion in MQ (like whatever Bible Third Man Books (“TMB”) may choose to offer/include. The wooden blocks, the tooth picks and the cord? I am working on a “Teach Yourself Braille” (“TYB”) necklace, an idea that someone shared several months ago. I still need to secure a drill before starting that prototype but thought I would share the idea^[4] now, in case you know of anyone who might be in a position to produce that.

The second reason for writing to you today? My concern that the 2026 FIFA World Cup could be leveraged into some international “super-spreader” event. Please review the materials stored at <https://twb.rocks/world-cup> ASAP to reach your own conclusions. As multiple U.S. Governors appear to be involved in multiple cover-up operations—not unlike Cabinet Ministers in Canada or Senator Kim Pate (see partial testimony and evidence stored at <https://twb.rocks/domestic-terrorism/perpetrators/individuals/kim-pate>)—my question now is:

“What won't they do next?”

during Satan’s “little season” (that is, Revelation 20:9).
