Anyone attempting to “catch up” on that which is transpiring as we endure the tail end of Revelation 20:9—by relying upon Twitter/X posts—is wasting their time. In short, this platform is a classification system. Minions gatekeep to mislead anyone attempting to learn the truth and serve the powers that be (“TPTB”) through “engagement farming” in Spaces and algorithm-supported tweets/posts, which results in individuals being assigned [an IP address]. The goal? Transitioning AI-assisted technology from its current predictive capacity to a prescriptive, even more dystopian system. Those of us attempting to raise awareness have already transitioned to more of a boots-on-the-ground (“BOTG”) approach even though that comes with its own risks and challenges due to TPTB’s massive, international gang-stalking network (see introduction to gang-stalking at <https://twb.rocks/gang-stalking>).

Revelations 20:9’s “camp/army of the saints”? That’s us—followers of Jesus who take Ezekiel 33, Matthew 25, Ephesians 2:8-10 and the rest of the Bible seriously—&, we are definitely being “compassed”/tracked. An excellent example of Twitter’s/X’s army of Satanic minions manifested 20260520 when, finally, after years of listening to some guy spend endless hours on Twitter/X trying to convince people that they should be spending their time studying Black’s Law Dictionary, Maritime Law, etc. in order to [escape] [the system], I called him out (see 20260520 11:25 post at <https://x.com/CaeJak/status/2057165903897460965?s=20>):

“How you manage to keep everyone distracted from reality is quite the talent, @InffyPaul (ie. <https://x.com/InffyPaul>). Enjoy your temporary arrogance; but, prepare for EVERYONE to realize that you’re merely another Satanic pawn.”

His sidekick immediately spun into a tantrum which revealed her stripes instantly as she—in one short tweet/post—supported not one but two human-trafficking operations:

- the criminal justice system (see outline being pre-published at <https://twb.rocks/upig>) and
 - the field of psychiatry (see years of evidence being linked to <https://twb.rocks/upig/psych>)
- ... all while pretending she is anti-establishment. That faux pas also revealed her relatively low E.Q. Whether or not @RealLunaLioness (ie. <https://x.com/RealLunaLioness>) is a merely a sociopath (see list of characteristics as item #5 stored at <https://twb.rocks/resources>) or serpent seed (see Genesis 3:15) is anyone’s guess; but, a legitimate “truther” she is not. Neither is multiple-account goof @InffyPaul.

LunaLioness’s decision to immediately revert to an “Ad Hominem” attack (see list of common literary devices that are often used by parasitic-predator pawns to intimidate and deceive at <https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/logical-fallacies>) by suggesting I was a mentally-ill criminal inspired me to invest a few minutes and combine some of my evidence against U.S. Governors in a simple, 6-tweet/post thread (see details below). Then, I circulated the thread amongst some of the CFA community with which—as a Chartered Financial Analyst since 1996—I am familiar.
