Importance: High

Mr. Myers?

If you fail to acknowledge my correspondence, then I'll have to assume you are complicit in Room In The Inn's shenanigans.

Please respond as I have other projects that I need to advance (see new material being published at <https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/satans-little-season/cities/grand-canyon-arizona>).

Mr. Morgan?

Would you be available to meet? I'd like to discuss some of my findings regarding the so-called "geology" of the Grand Canyon in Arizona (and elsewhere).

Subject: The RITI Reinstatement Process, 5 Questions, Forensic Audit || Fw: Full ban + threat of police involvement! || Fwd: PS. BoD Position/Advocacy Role || Fw: Formal Complaint Process for Room In The Inn

Mr. Myers,

I learned yesterday that RITI has a "re-instatement process" when individuals learn when and how their ban will be lifted. Why has nobody mentioned this process to me? Clearly, there's a lot of [monkey business] occurring at Room In The Inn and having an experienced Chartered Financial Analyst (who's done forensic accounting and extensive internal financial reporting at other not-for-profits) is not a welcome patron.

When reflecting upon your Executive Director's aggressive, knee-jerk reaction on July 29th and everything that's transpired since (partially evidenced in my 20260805 Agenda published at <https://twb.rocks/riti/riti-conflict-resolution-process/20260805-agenda>), I am left with five nagging questions (as I posted on Twitter yesterday, see attached and entry under August 7th at <https://twb.rocks/archives/y2026/m202608>):

1. Why does the RITI Expense report take so long for veteran Director of Finance Paul Spivey to submit (see image and associated link at <https://twb.rocks/riti/board-presentation>)?
2. Why are there only TWO gift cards offered by the RITI store (ie. Kroger's and McDonald's) when clearly patrons could benefit from access to other necessities like those offered by Goodwill (see previously-loved wheeled cases currently for sale at <https://twb.rocks/living/exposure/room-in-the-inn>)?
3. Why was a Jesus-following, experienced CFA (me) banned from RITI? Despite multiple requests for this answer, I've heard nothing but baseless allegations regarding some unacceptable behavior that "the volunteers are not equipped to handle" despite ALL volunteers thanking me for my attendance, my participation and/or my written material. I experience six weeks with nothing but accolades (see attendance record at <https://twb.rocks/riti/activity-dm>) until Rachel Hester learned of my existence.
4. Who, if anyone, does a complete financial audit of RITI's operations?
5. Are public and/or private funds being misused by RITI management? Have they found a way to commit fraud that can remain undetected as a 501(c)(3) church while seeking additional budget/donations claiming some benevolent service to Nashville's homeless population?

Mr. Myers, as an Asylum seeker (see evidence-linked submissions published at <https://twb.rocks/persecution/us-submissions>), I am not legally permitted to seek employment here until September 2026. I can, however, volunteer and I would gladly volunteer my time and expertise to complete an extensive audit of Room In The Inn. In addition to my previous requests (see below), to whom should I submit this offer? Do I leave it with you; or, should I contact your Finance Committee, Mayor Freddie O'Connell's review team or some other oversight agency?

Verily,

Mr. Myers,

Your Executive Director didn't even bother to show up yesterday and replacements Paul & Amanda were not capable of any meaningful discussion. More bizarre, baseless allegations ensued until they forced me from the property for pointing out their obvious literary devices/logical fallacies (see introduction to this bullying tactic at <https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/logical-fallacies>).

I am VERY concerned about that which may be transpiring "behind closed doors" at RITI while Nashville residents think RITI management is actually helping people. Their collective, overly-defensive reaction to my offer to promote their "points program" appears to have hit a nerve and one can only wonder ... why??

Would you be able to discuss this urgent matter next week?

Deirdre

PS. I'd still like to apply for a Board position and file a formal complaint against current RITI management. How shall I proceed to accomplish these two tasks?

Mr. Myers,

In addition to my request for Room In The Inn's formal complaint process, I would also like to apply for a position on your Board. I served on three separate non-for-profit Boards in Canada including an advocacy role for the Canadian Mental Health Association. While it only reflects a fraction of my professional experience, my résumé is viewable at <https://twb.rocks/about-us/resume-deirdre-moore>. Quite clearly, there are numerous "Community Development" opportunities being missed at Room Inn The Inn with "gatekeepers" at the helm (see evidence-laden Meeting Agenda at <https://twb.rocks/about-us/resume-deirdre-moore>). When:

- other local service providers volunteer to print [my RITI promotional materials] for distribution so others can learn of RITI's offerings and
 - retailers show interest in donating gift cards to the RITI "Exchange Class Attendance for Goods/Services" program (while the only current offerings remain McDonald's and Kroger's)
- the missed opportunities become evidence of glaring mismanagement.

Please forward to me the contact information for whomever I could speak with for a Board position.

Ms. Hester,

Last week you banned me from all of the classes that I was attending from 9:00-1:00 on the second floor: there are ZERO meaningful classes for me on the first floor as evidenced by your own schedules for the month of July stored at <https://twb.rocks/riti/class-schedules>.

As the libraries do not open until 9:00, I will be unable to print you a copy of the meeting agenda that will be stored at <https://twb.rocks/riti/riti-conflict-resolution-process/20260805-agenda>. Accordingly, I trust you'll be able to print your own copies: it should be completed by 8:00 am.

Deirdre

PS "... continue to reply to e-mails"?? That's another lie: this is the FIRST e-mail to which you have responded since June 19th. You may want to re-visit Exodus 20:16.

You are welcome at this time to receive the services on our first floor; some would allow you to earn points. We will be happy to meet tomorrow at 9 am but will not continue to reply to emails.

Thank you for your e-mail, Maggie.

I work every morning and your facility has neither WIFI nor any usable outlets for me to use; therefore, me arriving at 6:00 a.m. and [waiting around] until your team decides to page me is very unprofessional, disrespectful and somewhat ridiculous. Kindly provide a time when you will be available to discuss your without-grounds, discriminatory "ban". Also, I would like to have a written copy of your allegations and evidence (if any) by end of day today so I can prepare my defense and these details to new page "RITI Conflict Resolution Process" being developed at <https://twb.rocks/riti/riti-conflict-resolution-process>.

Good morning Ms. Hester.

To prepare for an upcoming performance this weekend, I need to access my RITI storage this afternoon and will be requesting same later this morning. I trust this will not pose a problem for you. Any news on my indefinite ban from RITI Bible Study and Art classes? I'd like to be in a position to start earning points again next week as I drained my RITI points account on Monday (prior to your ban) by gifting to others.

PS. The front desk replaced my Clancy's voucher; so, no need to worry about that.

Good morning Ms. Hester,

As you may recall, my seeking feedback on my draft flyer that raised awareness on the good work being done at Room In The Inn ("RITI")(see efforts published at <https://twb.rocks/riti>) resulted in an immediate, indefinite ban of me from all classes on the 2nd floor until further notice.

Kindly inform me of:

- When and from where I should obtain my Clancy replacement voucher?
- How I will be informed of when I am able to:

- attend Bible Study Classes with, in particular, Rod, Bill, Gary & Sheila?
- attend Art classes to complete my three current art projects:
 - "Meaningful Quest" (see <https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/meaningful-quest>),
 - "The Chronology Canvas" (see <https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/chronology-canvas>) and
 - my "Teach Yourself Braille" necklace (see Image #015 at <https://twb.rocks/living/appreciation/artists/jack-white/loving-jack-white/20260525-jack-white>).

As several groups are aware of my ongoing efforts to share the gospel and find fun ways for people to ramp their Biblical literacy, I would like to provide them with an accurate update on the reasons for the delay.
