Mr. Spivey,

I am not familiar with the term "sit down"; however, I welcome a meeting with Nashville's Room In The Inn ("RITI") Board. I am particularly interested in those serving RITI's Advocacy, Governance and/or Finance Committees.

With respect to timing, sadly I must return to the women's Nashville Rescue Mission ("NRM") by 13:30 tomorrow. I could meet between 8:00 and 11:00 tomorrow morning and/or:

- Thursday 8:00 - 16:00 and/or
- Friday 8:00 - 16:00.

With which RITI Board Member(s) will I be meeting, which Board committee(s) are they on (if any) and what is the expected duration? Also, other than a discussion surrounding the events of July 29-August 5, 2026; that is:

- a) Rachel Hester's initial 2nd-floor ban,
 - b) my mostly-unanswered correspondence and
 - c) your subsequent entire-property ban,
- what other topics is your Board prepared to discuss?

Verily,
Deirdre Moore

PS. I have yet to receive any information from anyone regarding RITI's formal processes for filing complaints (eg. harassment, Civil Rights violations, etc.): with whom should I connect to receive that? PPS. Please correct the spelling of my name in future correspondence and note that many of my husband's accomplices enjoyed making that same "error", which is interesting.

Diedre,
Are you available for a sit down tomorrow, 9/2 at 2pm at Room In The Inn with one of our board members?
