♪ (chorus x2)

Just swallow this pill, Jill.
We call it a med, Ned.
Don't ask how it's made, Jade.
You're in good company

Sit back and relax, Jax.
Don't question our psyche facts!
Compliance is key, Leigh.

Verse 3

One day I realized their words had zero base.
I sat there and I listened
(no expression on my face).
I just stared right back:
unsure of where to place disgrace.
(They must have 50 ways to [] us over.)

Verse 4

Psychosis isn't just a symptom,
as they said.
It's actually "higher knowledge" ²:
know that this is what they dread.
They dread you learning that:
your IQ's not what's in your head ³.
And, they have 50 ways to [] you over:
50 ways to [] you over ⁴.

Verse 1

"The problem's all inside your head",
they said to me.
"You're simply paranoid ¹, too ill;
yes, just too ill to see.
But we can help you, yes?
Just go to the pharmacy!
[We must have 50 ways to [] you over.]"

Verse 2

"We're really sorry this is happening to you.
It's not uncommon at your age,
so please don't misconstrue;
and, never question this:
you'll be quite sorry if you do.
[We've got fifty ways to [] you over.]"

- a) cover up domestic violence by misdiagnosing a fear-induced event as a mental illness and
- b) enable the chemical restraint of whistle-blowers by serving as accomplices to dirty cops, crooked prosecutors and bought/compromised judges. Partial evidence of these practices is stored at <https://twb.rocks/upig/psych>.

Sadly, this model has also seeped into parts of the United States (see undeniable evidence against one Buffalo, NY hospital at <https://twb.rocks/living/exposure/ecmcc/thomas-quatroche>).

³ Both knowledge and wisdom are spiritual gifts as discussed at https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/acknowledging-his-gifts_deirdre-moore_sean-kiska_cate-kiska; accordingly, they are provided as Our Father chooses. The idea that these spiritual gifts can be measured by some manmade test is ludicrous; and, clearly self-serving to those who currently develop tools for indoctrination/deception.

⁴ If we are correct about already being at Revelation 20:9 (see <https://twb.rocks/living/spirit/satans-little-season>), then Satan had 1,000 years to develop his ultimate plan for widespread deception (and, arguably, already over 950 years to execute). It certainly seems that the entire field of psychiatry was spawned by those plans.
